‘NOTHING WRONG IN PROMOTING HINDI, OTHER INDIAN LANGUAGES’

Relevant for: null | Topic: Indian Languages and Literature

The national general secretary of Bharatiya Janata Party C.T. Ravi on Thursday said there is nothing wrong in encouraging Hindi and regional languages instead of English and claimed that the Narendra Modi-led government has been promoting mother tongues in different parts of the country. Mr. Ravi, who is in charge of the BJP’s affairs in Tamil Nadu, refuted criticism from Kerala Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan and Tamil Nadu CM M.K. Stalin that the Centre was imposing Hindi on non-Hindi speaking States.
