

Nod for procurement of NAG missile

The Defence Ministry on Friday approved military procurement worth Rs. 3,687 crore, which includes anti-tank guided missile NAG for the Army and long-range guns for the Navy.

The proposals were cleared at a meeting of the Defence Acquisition Council (DAC) chaired by Defence Minister Nirmala Sitharaman.

The DAC approved procurement of thirteen 127 mm calibre guns for the Navy from U.S.-based BAE Systems for over Rs. 3,000 crore. The NAG missile system will be procured for the Army at a cost of Rs. 524 crore, officials said.
