

Rlys to install sanitary napkin dispensers at 200 stations by March 8

The Railways wants to install sanitary napkin dispensers and incinerators at about 200 major railway stations across the country by International Women's Day on March 8, the Ministry said on Monday. Railway Minister Piyush Goyal said that such "projects should be scaled up and the national transporter should be a leader in such social spheres."

END

Downloaded from crackIAS.com

© Zuccess App by crackIAS.com

crackIAS.com