

DNA data banks to be set up

DNA data banks will be set up at the national and the State levels to store profiles, and those who leak such information will be punished with jail terms of up to three years, according to a draft Bill on DNA technology being finalised by the Law Ministry. The data is to be used for identifying victims, accused, suspects, undertrials, missing persons and unclaimed bodies.PTI

END

Downloaded from crackIAS.com

© Zuccess App by crackIAS.com

crackIAS.com