

‘WANT AN AUTO SCRAPPING UNIT NEAR EVERY CITY’

Relevant for: Indian Economy | Topic: Infrastructure: Railways

Union Minister Nitin Gadkari on Saturday said his aim was to develop at least one automobile scrapping facility within 150 km from each city centre, while asserting that the country had the potential to become a vehicle scrapping hub for the entire South Asian region.

Speaking at a Material Recycling Association of India event here, Mr. Gadkari said: “India has potential to become a vehicle scrapping hub of the entire South Asian region. We can import a large number of old vehicles from Bangladesh, Bhutan, Myanmar, Maldives, Nepal and Sri Lanka for scrapping in our country”.
